Footnotes:

^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

^{2/} In addition to paper reports, reports must be filed electronically if, since January 1, 2000, the cumulative reportable payments received or made for the purpose of producing a slate mailer(s) was $50,000 or more. For information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

^{3/} File the semi-annual statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made to produce a slate mailer in the corresponding period.

^{4/} File the pre-election statements if payments of $500 or more are received or made to produce a slate mailer in connection with the November 7, 2006, election in the corresponding period.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- If payments are made in connection with issue advocacy or independent expenditures, contact the FPPC for information.
